B-answer only 1 out of the following questions: (1 x 1 = 1)

25- "One day Phileas Fog employed a new servant, Passepartout, a young Frenchman. Mr. Fogg took out his watch and said, " From this moment, twenty- nine minutes past eleven on the morning of Wednesday, October2nd, 1872, you are in my service."

" Mr. Fogg is a man of regular habits who lived his life according to a strict routine . "

A- Are you for or against being too strict? Why?

I am against being too strict because in life we face a lot of situations in which we need to accept alternative answers.

B- Imagine you were Mr. Fogg, what equipment would you take with you on the journey around the world?

If I were Mr. Fogg, I would take a map, a compass and a lot of food stuff.

26- " Mr. Fogg must be a rich man,"

A- Who said these words? To whom?

These words were said by Mr. Fix, the detective, to Fogg's servant.

B- Why do you think the man who said these words was trying to arrest Mr. Fogg?

Because he thought that Mr. Fogg was the robber of the Bank of England.
