VI- Reading Comprehension and Summary Making (160 Marks)*Read the following passage carefully and then answer the questions below:

Experts believe that we can get about 30 percent of our fitness just by going on holidays. Vacations force us to exercise because we walk greater distances, swim, chase the kids around and play sports. Just stand upright instead of sitting down at a desk all day helps you look and feel fitter. Regular movement during the day also boosts your circulation and gets your blood pumping which improves your heart rate and immune system.

Over 300 million people take holidays abroad every year, and a recent survey has shown that they would rather cut back spending on food and clothing than spend less on holidays. Choosing the ideal holiday is not always easy, but this day and age, there is a wide range of choices, and you should be able to find something to suit your taste and pocket. Some people like planning their holiday independently, while others prefer to book a package. It depends on where you are going, how much money you have and whether you are travelling alone, or with friends or family.

The obvious advantage of a package holiday is that it's simple to organize. You book the holiday through a travel agency, and transport insurance and accommodation are all arranged for you. All you have to do is to pay the bill. If you take an independent holiday, on the other hand, you can spend a lot of time and a small fortune checking complicated timetables, chasing cheap flights, and trying to make a hotel reservation in a language you can't even speak. What is more, package holidays are incredibly cheap if compared with independent holidays.

Yet, the advantages of planning your own holiday yourself are considerable. You are free to choose exactly when and where you want to go, how you want to travel and how long you want to stay. You can avoid large resorts, where holiday-makers on package tours are often trapped among crowds of other tourists. You can eat the food of the region at reasonable prices in local restaurants, while they are served with international dishes and chips with everything. Besides, although package holidays are usually extremely good value for money, they are not always cheaper. If you are willing to take a little trouble you may be able to save money by fixing up a foreign holiday yourself.
