

if-clause type 1

Compare these examples :

Nadia : I think I left my purse at your house . Have you seen it ?
 Sara : No , but I will look for it . If I find it , I'll give it to you .
 In this example there is a real possibility that Sara will find the purse .
 So she says : ' If I find I will "

Sara : If I found a diamond ring on the street , I would keep it .

This is a different type of situation . Sara is not thinking about a real possibility , she is imagining the situation .
 So she says : If I found I would "
